DISPLACED PEOPLES NEWSLETTER

Collaborative Research Network (CRN) 11, Displaced Peoples, is a Law and Society Association (LSA) Network that examines the intersection of race, gender, class, citizenship, power and privilege within the global migration polity of migrants, refugees and displaced persons.

Welcome and Announcements

Dear Colleagues:

Welcome to the CRN 11 September 2019 Newsletter.

Law and Society 2020 in Denver, Colorado is here! Consider submitting a paper on Displaced Peoples.

In September 2019, the Journal of Internal Displacement launched its fresh new design. All are encouraged to visit and experience the new look. For more information, visit the Journal of Internal Displacement.

We continue with exciting news on the Deadly Voyages: Migrant Journeys Across the Globe book project that will be published in late 2019. Be sure to preorder your copy from Rowman and Littlefield.

CRN11 is in search of an editor for the monthly newsletter. All interested persons should send a cover letter and CV to veronica.fynnbruey@tuki-tumarankeh.org and benders@seattleu.edu by 30 September 2019.

Warmly,

Veronica Fynn Bruey and Steven W. Bender

CALL FOR PAPERS: LAW AND SOCIETY 2020

As you may know, the Law and Society Annual Meeting 2020 Call for Papers has been released. CRN 11 invites you to submit a paper(s) to be considered for a panel, salon, or round-table presentation. The LSA 2020 deadline for abstract submission is 6 November 2019. In order to put together a Panel, Salon or Round-Table Presentation on Displaced Peoples, please submit a working title and a brief abstract by 21 October 2019 to veronica.fynnbruey@tuki-tumarankeh.org and benders@seattleu.edu. General Calls

Upcoming Book: Deadly Voyages Migrant Journeys Across the Globe (CRN 11 Event)

Edited by Veronica Fynn Bruey and Steven W. Bender, Deadly Voyages: Migrant Journeys Across the Globe, explores the burdens and impact of perilous migration, while considering which laws, policies, practices, and venues might establish empathy and protection for migrants. This interdisciplinary volume envisions and calls for a transformation in migration policy, motivated by the common goal of drastically reducing the peril migrants face when compelled to make their treacherous journeys. To pre-order, visit: Rowman and Littlefield.
