DISPLACED PEOPLES NEWSLETTER

Collaborative Research Network (CRN) 11, Displaced Peoples, is a Law and Society Association (LSA) Network that examines the intersection of race, gender, class, citizenship, power and privilege within the global migration polity of migrants, refugees and displaced persons.

Welcome and Announcements

Dear Colleagues:

Welcome to the CRN 11 October 2019 Newsletter.

The deadline for the Law and Society 2020 in Denver, Colorado is approaching! Consider presenting a paper on Displaced Peoples by designating CRN 11 when submitting online.

The Journal of Internal Displacement launched its fresh new website using the Open Journal System (OJS). All are encouraged to visit, subscribe, and experience the new look. For more information, visit the Journal of Internal Displacement.

We continue with our excitement for the Deadly Voyages: Migrant Journeys Across the Globe book project. Be sure to preorder your copy from Rowman and Littlefield. Watch this space for more info.

CRN11 is still in search of an editor for the monthly newsletter. All interested persons should send a cover letter and CV to veronica.fynnbruey@tuki-tumarankeh.org and benders@seattleu.edu. The position will remain open until it is filled.

Warmly,

Veronica Fynn Bruey and Steven W. Bender

CALL FOR PAPERS: LAW AND SOCIETY 2020

CRN 11 invites you to submit a paper(s) to be considered for a panel, salon, or round-table presentation for the Law and Society Annual Meeting 2020. General Calls

Upcoming Book: Deadly Voyages Migrant Journeys Across the Globe (CRN 11 Event)

Edited by Veronica Fynn Bruey and Steven W. Bender, Deadly Voyages: Migrant Journeys Across the Globe, explores the burdens and impact of perilous migration, while considering which laws, policies, practices, and venues might establish empathy and protection for migrants. This interdisciplinary volume envisions and calls for a transformation in migration policy, motivated by the common goal of drastically reducing the peril migrants face when compelled to make their treacherous journeys. To pre-order, visit: Rowman and Littlefield.
