DISPLACED PEOPLES NEWSLETTER

Collaborative Research Network (CRN) 11, Displaced Peoples, is a Law and Society Association (LSA) Network that examines the intersection of race, gender, class, citizenship, power and privilege within the global migration polity of migrants, refugees and displaced persons.

Welcome and Announcements

Dear Colleagues:

Welcome to the CRN 11 November-December (Nov-Dec) 2019 Newsletter, our last issue in volume 1. We have come to the end of another year with so many prospects for 2020. We successfully launched the Journal of Internal Displacement new website, assisted with planning the IASFM 18 in Ghana, and added nine (9) new research collaborators.

We are excited about beginning 2020 with the publication of Deadly Voyages: Migrant Journeys Across the Globe. To preorder your copy with a 30 per cent discount, be sure to use the code LEX30AUTH20 when purchasing from Rowman and Littlefield.

CRN 11 is also in the process of organizing presentations for Law and Society 2020. Remember to register by 7 December to get the early-bird rate by saving between $10-$30.

Please join me in welcoming our newest researcher and member, Miss Adebimpe Desire Fashina, an Assistant Lecturer/PhD Candidate at the Department of Liberal Studies, Technical University of Mombasa, Kenya.

CRN11 is still in search of an editor for the monthly newsletter. All interested persons should send a cover letter and CV to veronica.fynnbruey@tuki-tumarankeh.org and benders@seattleu.edu. The position will remain open until it is filled.

Warmly,
Veronica Fynn Bruey and Steven W. Bender

CRN 11: Upcoming Publication

Edited by Veronica Fynn Bruey and Steven W. Bender, Deadly Voyages: Migrant Journeys Across the Globe, explores the burdens and impact of perilous migration, while considering which laws, policies, practices, and venues might establish empathy and protection for migrants. This interdisciplinary volume envisions and calls for a transformation in migration policy, motivated by the common goal of drastically reducing the peril migrants face when compelled to make their treacherous journeys. To preorder your copy with a 30 per cent discount, be sure to use the code LEX30AUTH20 when purchasing from Rowman and Littlefield.
